

Olympic Scholarships for Athletes “London 2012”

Olympic Solidarity certifies that

Amer HRUSTANOVIC

has received an Olympic scholarship “London 2012” as from 01.09.2010.

We are extremely happy to welcome you into the Olympic family as a “London 2012” Olympic scholarship holder. As a scholarship holder, you will play an important role as ambassador of the Olympic Movement by representing a concrete example of the International Olympic Committee’s policy of Solidarity throughout the world. We trust that you will help us in passing this message!

We would like to wish you the best of luck for the long and arduous road to qualifying for London as our biggest hope is to be able to see you in 2012 representing your country at the Olympic Games!

Let the Olympic Spirit be with you!

The Olympic Solidarity team